FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SFA Audit Seminars Announces 2009 Schedule

February 9, 2009 - SFA Audit Seminars, a division of Deemer Dana & Froehle LLP announced its 2009 seminar schedule. The dates and locations are as follows:

May 18-20, 2009 Orlando, Florida - Disney's Coronado Springs Resort

June 8-10, 2009 Phoenix, AZ - Tempe Mission Palms

July 6-8, 2009 San Juan, PR - Embassy Suites Hotel & Casino

September 9-11, 2008 St. Louis, MO - Marriott St. Louis Airport

Online registration, payment and detailed class information is available for your convenience by visiting www.sfaauditseminars.com. Note that prices for the 2009 seminars have not increased from 2008.

The multi-day seminar provides an overview of the current regulations for student financial aid programs, the numerous forms and regulations used to administer these programs, and the proper management of the programs by institutional personnel. It also includes information on the more technical requirements and aspects of the audit. This year all seminar locations offer the 3-day format. However, a 1-day or 2-day option is still available. SFA Audit Seminars are Yellow-book qualified.

Taught by the Education Services Group of Deemer Dana & Froehle and in partnership with J. Stephen Collins, Ph.D., C.P.A., Associate Professor of Accounting, University of Massachusetts at Lowell (and former Director of Financial Aid at Boston College) and Robert M. Turner, D.B.A., Associate Professor of Accounting & Law at Babson College,

Boston, Massachusetts the seminar offers a comprehensive technical overview for CPAs, internal auditors, state auditors, and anyone else with responsibilities for federal student aid at post secondary institutions.
